TOP 10 GRAMMAR ERRORS
HOW TO AVOID THE GRAMMAR POLICE

1. Lack of subject verb agreement
   - Examples: The winged horse when
   - Correct: The winged horse when
   - Examples: The winged horse when
   - Correct: The winged horse when

2. Using the wrong pronoun
   - Incorrect: Everybody must write their own poem.
   - Correct: Everybody must write his or her own poem.

3. Incorrect use of apostrophes
   - Examples: Ty's, it's
   - Correct: His and it's
   - Examples: They're, there
   - Correct: They're and there

4. Missing comma or semi colon in a compound sentence
   - Correct: She wanted to go, but she didn't have a car.

5. Writing run-on sentences
   - Incorrect: Tom is very cute, he is very popular at school.
   - Correct: Tom is very cute. He is very popular at school.

6. Misuse of homophones
   - Examples: Accept vs. Except - Accept means to receive.
   - Examples: There vs. Their - They wanted to go there. Their mother was not home.

7. Using wrong verb tense
   - Examples: For present tense - We walk to the store.
   - Examples: For future tense - We will walk to the store.

8. Using who vs. whom
   - Examples: Who is a subject pronoun.
   - Examples: With whom are you going to the party?

9. Using double negatives
   - Incorrect: She doesn't have no idea of what to do next.
   - Correct: She doesn't know what to do next.

10. Using few vs. less
    - Use "few" if the noun is countable
    - Use "less" if the noun is uncountable
    - Examples: She wore out fewer shoes because she walked less miles.